Acts of the Enemy

We did not believe that the scheme projected some time ago of getting up a third ticket in this county for the purpose mainly, of defeating the Union ticket would be successful. We do not doubt however that men can be found to engage in this measure, but they will prove to be few and as the scheme developes itself, they will be less. The election now at hand is regarded by all right thinking men as one of unusual importance. The question is not in fact, whether this or that man shall be elected to office, but whether certain great principles shall be sustained by our citizens, or whether they shall be defeated. It is too late in the day now to successfully deny the fact that a great party exists in this State—not by any means a majority party—who have been and are inimical to our Government—are in favor of breaking it up—being sympathizers with the rebellion. We take their own acts as evidence of this truth. We take their own words constantly and deliberately expressed, that their hearts are with the enemy. The declarations of Stark, J F Miller, Dennison and others, leaders of the party—and the newspapers in their interest, have in all time for the last year, been favorable to the enemy and against our Government.

The election now at hand is to settle the matter, whether the enemies or friends of the Union are to rule in Oregon. In this settlement, on the side of the Union, there is a general gathering of good men of all parties. In this movement we but follow out the lead of the highest departments of the Government. In the Cabinet, in the field both in the ranks of the officers and the soldiers, there is a mixture of all men, of all parties, cemented together by a great and holy principle—the love of country. We but follow in the track of worthy leaders, when here we drop ephemeral party names and views, and form one grand phalanx in support of the Union and Government.

We know that now, even at this eleventh hour, men from whose mouths have for months flowed streams of treason, talk as if they were for sustaining the war by men and taxation. This is evidence only of the force of public opinion pressing upon them—not from any patriotic motive. Men who have shouted over the victory at Bull Run, when patriots have wept in sorrow and humiliation are not to be trusted.

We cannot believe that any true Union man, properly appreciating the importance of his vote to his own character and the true interests of his country, will throw it away upon a bogus ticket—and, what is worse, by this act, indirectly vote for rebellion sympathizers. We are sure that as men understand this matter, they will vote, as they will rejoice that they have voted in the years to come. The poll-books of this State will hereafter tell a tale lasting as life, and which will be even quoted beyond that period, to the credit or discredit of individuals and families. In the great struggle for the support of our beloved Government—the first fearful struggle since its foundation—men are compelled to take positions, the effects of which will live long after they sleep in their graves.

HOLLINS CAPTURED.—Commander Hollins the "Great Gun" of the rebel navy has been captured by our forces. The St Louis Republican of the 12th of April says:

"It has not yet been stated we believe that Commodore Hollins, of 'ram' turtle notoriety, was captured in the general rout at Island No 10; but such is the fact. He is now a prisoner. The Commodore made a present of a handsome squirrel gun to Major Speed Butler, Gen Pope's Adjutant General, thinking no doubt, that for some time to come at least he would have no use for such a weapon. He may be expected here in a day or two."

We learn from a gentleman who recently came down from Walla Walla, that Colonel Cornelius of the Oregon Cavalry will shortly relieve Capt Rowell of the command at Walla Walla, and that the latter gentleman will probably be still further relieved of his commission in consequence of certain efforts to traduce the character of C[illegible].

The St Louis arrived from Panama on Sunday, with 1 0[illegible] passengers among whom is Michael Phelan, the champion billiard player. The St L. brings dates to the 21st, but no mail—the new arrangement not having gone into effect when the steamer left New York.—Marysville Appeal, May 20

Speaking at the Court house Monday Evening

The public speaking at the Court House on Monday evening was largely attended and considerable enthusiasm was manifested in response to the many glowing sentiments, terrible truths and practical arguments presented by the several speakers. Mr Ladd first addressed the assemblage in a neat and well timed introduction and was followed by Mr A J Dufur, who succeeded in showing up the silly attempts of the opposition to ridicule, malign and traduce his private reputation in a very happy manner, calling out frequent rounds of applause. Mr Dufur presented many convincing facts connected with the present contest. All [illegible] which he seemed to tell with force upon his hearers.

At the close of his speech Mr John H Mitchell was called, who came forward and addressed the assemblage in an able speech of nearly an hour in length, wherein he recalled the many acts of high handed treason and usurpation of unconstitutional power on the part of the rebels long before President Lincoln was inaugurated, showing conclusively that the accusations of the opposition, that this is an Abolition war—a republican party war—a war brought on by President Lincoln, was utterly false and unfounded; that treason and rebellion to the Government commenced months before Mr Lincoln came into power, and that had the Southern insurgents desired peace and the further perpetuity of our glorious Union, they could have prevented the sad consequences which they are now about to reap. "They had sown to the wind, and would reap the whirlwind." His classification of the different parties now before the people of the country was truly correct. There is first, the unconditional Unionists, and second the unconditional secessionists and third, the conditional Unionists or conditional rebels—the term being convertible. The unconditional Unionists are composed of all true and faithful citizens who desire to maintain the Government and the laws of our country—who oppose rebellion, let it come from what source it may, and who are ready and willing to support and assist the legal authorities of the nation in putting down all insurrections and administering the laws in all their constitutional force and power, and in punishing the violators of peace.

The unconditional secessionists, or rebels, are those who want no compromise, who seek to destroy our present form of government, break down the constitutional safeguards of our Union, obliterate civil liberty and uproot the foundations of this great nation which was planted by the sweat and toil of our forefathers, watered and nourished in its infancy by their sacred life's blood, consecrated upon more than an hundred battle fields, as a bequest to their posterity, and a home for all the oppressed of every nation.

The conditional secessionists, (of which the so called democratic party of Oregon is an integral part) are composed of that class of go-betweens who profess to be true and loyal at one time and then at another are rebels and traitors, just in proportion as their peculiar views are likely to raise or fall. So long as there appears to be a prospect of their getting hold of the reigns of government they profess to be truly Unionists and patriots, but if they fail to secure place and power then they are secessionists and traitors.

They are loudly in favor of compromise let it be upon any terms however disgraceful and ruinous to the nation. But they say that unless a compromise can be made with the unconditional traitors, then they are traitors too. They want no war, oh no, not they, they are in favor of peace, even if it should cost the nation the sum total of what the unconditional rebels demand; that is, if peace cannot be obtained upon any other terms, they are in favor of letting the Union slide and in its place the establishment of a hierarchy, a despotic and tyrannous rule whose center or core is the almighty nigger. Such, in brief, is an outline of the gentleman's remarks (we wish we had room for more of them) when, after paying a touching tribute to the memory of the patriotic and heroic Irish regiment who refused to fire upon the flag of our country which they had sworn to support, and because they thus refused they were forced into the front ranks of the enemy that they might be shot down by our forces, the few survivors being afterwards murdered by order of their enraged commanders, the rehearsal of which is enough to make the stoutest heart bleed, Mr. Mitchell retired from the stand amid much applause.

Judge Marquam was then called upon the stand and presented a few practical and logical arguments and deductions which acted as a clincher to what had been previously said. The meeting then adjourned all apparently well pleased (except the few seceshers that were present) with what they had heard.

DOUBLE HEADERS.—The following named five States have a double headed State Government: Kentucky—Governors, Beriah Magoffin and Geo W Johnson; Missouri—Hamilton R Gamble, and Claiborne F Jackson; North Carolina—Marble Nash Taylor, Henry T Clark and Edward Stanly; Tennessee—Andrew Johnson and I G Harris; Virginia—Francis H Pierpont and John Letcher. It is proper to state that of these "heads" some have gone "[illegible]," while others are stationary.

California Items

The following items are from the Sacramento Union of May 20th:

Owing to the wires being down beyond [illegible] we are without any telegraphic intelligence from the East this morning. The fault is doubtless mainly in the line extending through Utah, which was put up in a hurry and in the Winter season. The Spring floods and the breaking up of the frost has probably unsettled the telegraph fixtures in that section. It is worthy of mention that the line from California to Salt Lake has been in working order pretty much all the time since the period of the great floods.

The steamer St Louis, which arrived from Panama May 18th, brought no letter mail from the East. This evil will probably be remedied by the time of the next arrival.

The Overland Mail, it is understood, will be running regularly next week.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19th.—The Chief of Police has made a demand on the Supervisors for sixty additional special policemen to attend the polls to-morrow. It will no doubt be a vigorous contest. The friends of the Citizen's ticket are prepared to use every weapon in political warfare. Bets are made two to one against Cowles for Police Judge. He will have a very strong opposition from the advocates of Sunday amusements and the retail liquor dealers.

Some copies of Pres't Lincoln's likeness [illegible] in Switzerland, were received by this steamer.

THE VACANT JUDGESHIP.—The Stockton Independent is informed that a petition is in circulation and obtaining signatures in Calaveras, asking the Governor to appoint W. S. B[illegible] to the bench of the Sixteenth Judicial District, composed of the counties of Calaveras and Amador, made vacant by the impeachment of Judge J. H. Hardy.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—The election has been a spirited contest, but no serious disturbance has occurred. The whole number of votes polled is 11,051. It is claimed that the Citizen's ticket is ahead in the First, Third, Fifth, Seventh, Tenth, Eleventh and Twelfth Districts. Cowles, the People's candidate for Police Judge, was scratched in every district. Curran, the Citizens candidate for Street Inspector, is elected by a fair majority. The People's ticket was generally scratched.—Burke, for Chief of Police, had no opposition. Numerous circulars emanating from each party, charging all sorts of villainy, have been sown broadcast through the streets during the day. One circular signed by Hale, People's candidate for Auditor, denounced as a liar the author of a statement made by Worthington at the Citizens ratification meeting last night. The publication resulted in a personal collision between Worthington and Hale. Worthington was arrested by the police.

A match race for $2,000, two mile heats heats took place to-day over the San Jose course. Triumph, alias Beauregard, won the race easily, time—3 55.

The Union Candidate for Governor

Eds Oregonian:

As I know of no direct defence, as to the charge of Abolitionism, made against J. R. McBride, I beg leave to say a few words on that subject.

I have been acquainted with Mr McBride for about six years—intimately so—known him as a citizen, as a neighbor and as a young man well informed, and posted in the political history of our country.

He has always been studious and has hence kept fully up to the times in all that has transpired in the political parties, agitations and questions of the day.

Of a reasoning and philosophical turn of mind he has formed his political creed and regulated his practice thereby. Hence he has always been consistent and firm in his political faith and practice, and far removed from the noisy, blustering and vacillating politicians so often met in every town.

Born in Missouri, belonging to a family exclusively Southern, he could but love and cherish the South as the home of his boyhood—the home of his fathers—and hence from that quarter we cannot infer any tendency to Abolitionism.

I believe that I know Jas. R. McBride's views upon this great question of slavery as well as I can know the views of any man upon that or any other subject, and every one who knows him intimately will say with me, that if he entertained even a respectable sympathy for doctrines of the Abolition party he is not the man to disguise it. He is always, both in public and in private conversations, many of which I have had with him upon this subject, has been opposed to any and all agitation, either political or otherwise, upon the question of slavery.

Although I have always been opposed to him in politics, we have often in the last six years conversed fully and freely upon the different political issues and questions of the day—and J. R. McBride I have always found to be opposed to all or anything sectional—He is national in all his views and feelings, and if sent to represent us in Congress will doubtless by his firmness, his unexceptionable manners and strict morality, do more to check and stay the blind fanaticism that now presses so heavily upon the Administration [illegible] him any one we can send. Our local interests are all known to him and our interests are his.

Then let us repel the foul slander that is with so much confidence hurled against him, and by our votes send this time a man to represent us in Congress, that is truly National.

VINTEX.

BEAUREGARD'S SPEECH.—On the Commodore Perry which went to Cincinnati with a load of wounded was a rebel Major we did not learn his name who had been wounded. He states that before the fight had commenced Beauregard made a speech to his men to the following effect: The engagement now before them was to be the decisive battle of the [illegible]; if they lost it all was lost, if they won it the prospect was bright. They had not had any pay, and if they failed in this battle would not get any, for the money would not be worth a cent; if they gained a victory each man should have one thousand dollars. This promise, says the Major, was what nerved the rebels with such desperation. But it was all of no avail and they have fled not to be coaxed into another fight.—Louisville Democrat

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

THE MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN [illegible] had at the Franklin Book Store, opposite the [illegible]

GOOD.—The Oregon Steam Navigation Company have changed the place of landing for their steamers from Mr Vaughn's wharf to Mr Couch's wharf. The change was doubtless made in consequence of the high water which is rapidly covering up the former, still the change has proven quite a relief to the thoroughfare on Front street, as the drays and freight wagons can now be landed on the upper wharf out of the way.

IMPROVING.—We notice that the Street Commissioner is having the mud and filth on [illegible] Street cleared away as rapidly as possible, and if he continues to clear up until all our principal thoroughfares are renovated he will accomplish a good work which has long been needed. We have heard it frequently remarked by strangers that they never saw as filthy streets in any town of the size as Portland, and if this filth is allowed to remain until hot weather [illegible], it will inevitably cause disease and pestilence.

COULDN'T CATCH IT.—Our local jumped up [illegible] item in the upper part of the city yesterday evening, and chased it down Front street till it took the water this side of the gas works; but being slightly lame he couldn't take it in time for this issue. He intends to watch round the corners hereafter and should one happen to come jogging along "a bet" he will nab it on the spot.

"PLAYED OUT."—The Independent [illegible] has played itself out before getting half way to the polls—nearly all the nominees having politely declined the honor, or rather compliment, extended by the little conclave that met at the theatre a few days ago. That won't fight.

LATER NEWS.—The stage last night brought no later news from the East, the wires being down. Dates from San Francisco of the 20th say that the City Election was [illegible]ly contested, but it is presumed that the People's Ticket was carried by a small majority.

SPEAKING.—The candidates for Congress speak at Oregon City to-day, at two o'clock, and in this city to-morrow.

Rev. T. H. Pearne will address the citizens of Portland on Friday evening next in the Court House, upon the political issues of the day. Go and hear him, everybody.

RUNAWAY.—A span of horses attached to a carriage in which four young gentlemen were taking a pleasure ride ran away on the road opposite the river, yesterday evening, smashing the carriage to pieces and severely injuring one of the party.

The Willamette is still rising at the rate of [illegible] every 24 hours. We learn from [illegible] S. F. Devore that the waters of the Upper Columbia are rapidly advancing to an unprecedented and fearful height.

FOR SALE.—See advertisement of valuable property for sale, in Couch's and Caruthers' Additions. It will be sold in single blocks [illegible] four dwelling houses included.

Platform of the Union Party of Oregon

Resolved, That we will ever support the State Governments in all their rights, as the most competent administrators of their domestic concerns, and the surest bulwarks against anti-republican tendencies, and preserve the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of our peace at home and safety abroad.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the suppression of the present wicked rebellion, of a vigorous prosecution of the war, so long as necessary to frustrate the schemes of armed [illegible].

Resolved, That we are opposed to any [illegible] other than the honorable and [illegible] when rebels and their sympathizers [illegible] to constitutionally elected authorities of the Republic.

Resolved, That the General Government should exert its utmost energy to defend the Constitution, execute the laws and preserve the Union—and that in accordance with these declarations we pledge ourselves to support the nominees of this Convention.

Public Speaking.

The Union Candidates for the Legislature in the County [illegible] and the Union candidates for the Official County [illegible], will address the people of Multnomah County at the following times and places:

JOHN R. FOSTER has removed his stock of HARDWARE to his

Old Stand on Front street,

opposite the New Wharf Oregon Steam Navigation Co.

On the Shores of Tennessee.

"Move my arm chair, faithful Pompey,
In the sunshine bright and strong,
For this world is fading Pompey—
Massa won't be with you long
And I fain would hear the south wind
Bring once more the sound to me,
Of the wavelets softly breaking
On the shores of Tennessee

"Mournful though the ripples murmur,
As they still the story tell
How no vessels float the banner
That I've loved so long and well
I shall listen to their music
Dreaming that again I see
Stars and Stripes on sloop and shallop
Sailing up the Tennessee

"And, Pompey, while old Massa's waiting
For Death's last despatch to come,
If that exiled starry banner
Should come proudly sailing home
You shall greet it slave no longer –
Voice and hand shall both be free
That shout and point to Union colors
On the waves of Tennessee"

"Massa's berry kind to Pompey,
But ole darkey's happy here,
Where he's tended corn and cotton,
For dese many a long gone year
Over yonder Missis' sleeping—
No one tends her grave like me,
Mebbe she would miss the flowers
She used to love in Tennessee

"Pears like she was watching Massa –
If Pompey should beside him stay,
Mebbe she'd remember better
How for him she used to pray,
Telling him that way up yonder
White as snow his soul would be,
If he served the Lord of Heaven
While he lived in Tennessee"

Silently the tears were rolling
Down the poor old dusky face,
As he stepped behind his master,
In his long-accustomed place
Then a silence fell around them,
As they gazed on rock and tree
Pictured in the placid waters
Of the rolling Tennessee.

Master, dreaming of the battle
Where he fought by Marion's side,
When he bid the haughty Tarleton
Stoop his lordly crest of pride
Man, remembering how yon sleeper
Once he held upon his knee,
Ere she loved the gallant soldier
Ralph Vervair, of Tennessee.

Still the south wind fondly lingers
'Mid the veteran's silver hair,
Still the bondman close beside him
Stands behind the old arm chair
With his dark hued hand uplifted,
Shading eyes, he bends to see
Where the woodland boldly jutting
Turns aside the Tennessee

Thus he watches cloud born shadows
Glide from tree to mountain crest,
Softly creeping, aye and ever
To the river's yielding breast
Ha! above the foliage yonder
Something flutters wild and free!
"Massa! Massa! Hallelujah!
The flag's come back to Tennessee!"

"Pompey, hold me on your shoulder,
Help me stand on foot once more,
That I may salute the colors
As they pass my cabin door
Here's the paper signed that frees you,
Give a freeman's shout with me—
'God and Union!' be our watchword
Evermore in Tennessee.'

Then the trembling voice grew fainter,
And the limbs refused to stand
One prayer to Jesus—and the soldier
Glided to that better land
When the flag went down the river
Man and master both were free
While the ring dove's note was mingled
With the rippling Tennessee.

A Philosophical Darkey.—I noticed upon the hurricane deck to day an elderly darkey with a very philosophical and retrospective cast of countenance, squatted upon his bundle, toasting his shins against the chimney, and apparently plunged into a state of profound meditation. Finding, upon inquiry, that he belonged to the Ninth Illinois, one of the most gallantly behaved and heavily losing regiments at the Fort Donelson battle, and part of which was aboard, I began to interrogate him upon the subject. His philosophy was so much in the Falstaffian vein that I will give his views in his own words as near as my memory serves me

"Were you in the fight?"

"Had a little taste of it, sa."

"Stood your ground, did you?"

"No, sa, I runs."

"Run at the first, did you?"

"Yes, sa, and would hab run soona had I knowd it war comin."

"Why, that wasn't very creditable to your courage."

"Dat isn't in my line, sa—cookin's my perfeshun."

"Well, but have you no regard for your reputation?"

"Reputation's nuffin to me de side ob life."

"Do you consider your life worth more than other people's?"

"It's worth more to me, sa."

"Then you must value it very highly?"

"Yes, sa, I does—more dan all dis world—more dan a million ob dollars, sa, for what would dat be wuth to a man wid de bref out ob him? Selfpreserbashun am de fust law wid me."

"But why should you act upon a different rule from other men?"

"Because different men sets different values upon dar lives—mine is not in de market."

"But if you lost it, you would have the satisfaction of knowing that you died for your country."

"What satisfaction would dat be to me when de power of feeling was gone?"

"Then patriotism and honor are nothing to you?"

"Nuffin whatever, sa—I regard dem as among de vanities."

"If our soldiers were like you, traitors might have broken up the Government without resistance."

"Yes, sa, dar would hab been no help for it. I wouldn't put my life in de scale 'ginst any Gubernment dat ever existed, for no Gubernment could replace de loss to me."

"Do you think any of your company would have missed you if you had been killed?"

"May be not, sa—a dead white man ain't much to dese sogers, let alone a dead nigga—but I'd missed myself, and dat was de pint wid me."

It is safe to say that the dusky corpse of that African will never darken the field of carnage.—Correspondent Cincinnati Gazette.

A Souvenir of Fort Vancouver.

BY C. A. A.

All hail, Pacific! boundless and supreme,
The wild Eureka of the [illegible],
First viewed by Balboa from the hill of Darien,
As from the mount he gazed upon the scene,
[illegible] are thy waters when that trade wind,
Rough the surges on thy rock bound strand
An infant stream I take a [illegible] rise
In inland snowy peaks—where [illegible]
Rushing o'er the hills from mountain brooks,
Meandering thro' deep chasms and [illegible],
Until [illegible] formed Columbia's [illegible],
Whose [illegible] stream flows [illegible]
In native loveliness she gaily dashes on
Receiving tribute as she glides along
From placid lakes and mossy mountain side
Willing [illegible] pride,
She meets Willamette with a fond embrace
They kiss—and though they [illegible]
Their onward course [illegible] human power can stay
Her march of [illegible]
Her rival [illegible] bounded by the emerald tide
Where Pacific awaits the advent of his bride
Daily they plight their troth, daily they [illegible] and kiss
The canopy of heaven the witness of their bliss
Bathed by the tidal wave a spot is found,
In memory of the brave Vancouver named
In former years a grasping [illegible] band
Claimed this fair valley as their rightful land,
Gigantic trees were fashioned [illegible]
Where the Chief [illegible] held [illegible]
Here was enacted that barbaric scene
A truthful emblem of a despot's reign
In broad noonday [illegible]
A man [illegible]
Immortal [illegible]
And with his [illegible]
Flow on, fair river, your pure virgin fame
No more is sullied by his hateful name
The petty tyrant of a neighboring [illegible]
Whose [illegible] breath is poison to the soil
There let him reign o'er clams and squaws,
Obedient subjects to his code of laws,
Until the clarion sounds the solemn knell,
That wafts his soul to judgment and to hell
Portland, May 26th, 186[illegible]

A German journal relates the following anecdote on the authority of a traveller recently returned from Africa. A wealthy Arab residing near the frontiers of Morocco, lately paid his first visit to Algiers, and was present at a ball. On his return home he said to his wives, "What strange creatures those French women are! Would you believe it? they absolutely carry an open umbrella under their petticoats!"

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order, should make a TIGHT LOCK STITCH alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk, directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle, curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather, and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk above or below to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel feed, no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order, neither should it require a screw driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, nor ravel.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

OFFICE HOURS—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise FREE.

Address, DR L J CZAPKAY San Francisco

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted.

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance,—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing, or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines used are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During twenty years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stage of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the diseases, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. [illegible] should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering, down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by twenty years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

[illegible]

night followed by involuntary discharges have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having [illegible] I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr C[illegible] and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

MARYSVILLE, June 24, 1860.

DR L J CZAPKAY San Francisco—Sir I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more as I feel very well except that I have not [illegible] got my strength yet but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my constitution, as I thought, broken entirely and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly but thought you might be able to do [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head, and [illegible] my nerves so that I would not get excited and [illegible] at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin and the ulcers from my throat, and the [illegible] page of those emissions, which you said were [illegible] cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not [illegible] got my strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

Inclosed I send you twenty dollars over your [illegible] think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited you may put this letter in the [illegible] Believe me gratefully yours,

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of [illegible] which owing to my inability to meet the [illegible] quent upon thorough medical treatment, and the [illegible] agreement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest [illegible] and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] miseries of my life and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as [illegible] more who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible]. While in this state and having, previous to my [illegible] tasted the sweets of life I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr L J Czapkay. I told him of my [illegible] and the hesitation [illegible] him for his services, [illegible] of which however he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoyed [illegible] and yet in [illegible] of my indebtedness, I [illegible] to the [illegible] and all afflicted to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
